OUR LADY OF GOOD COUNSEL PARISH

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

From the Pastor's Desk:

"By his wounds, we are healed." – Isaiah 53:5

Aloha!

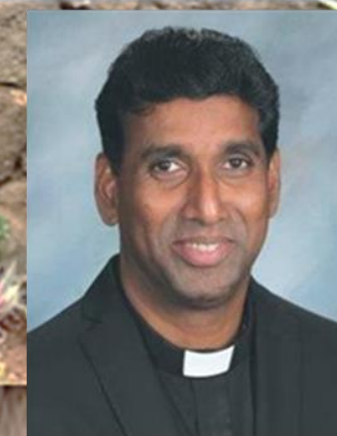

Today we celebrate Palm Sunday, the Passion of the Lord. We are in the last Sunday of Lent, and we are invited to get into the mode of immediate preparation for the Paschal Mystery of the Lord. We enter into the Passion of Christ through the passion narrative, which is being proclaimed today, and experience how God saved us in Jesus Christ. Jesus laid down His life for us and was treated and judged like a criminal. He was forced to carry the cross, and upon His shoulders, He bore our sins to save us. When He was harshly and unjustly condemned, then crucified, he remained on His mission, that is, to win us over from the clutches of sin and Satan. He went to the slaughterhouse like a lamb to be slaughtered for our salvation, and thus to fulfill the will and plan of the Father as a ransom for our sins to redeem us. On the cross, while breathing His last, He reveals how united He and the Father are in saving us. He pleads to the Father for His own accusers and adversaries. "Father, forgive them for they don't know what they are doing."

Yes, forgiveness is the invitation and gift from Jesus to us. Let us seek forgiveness and give forgiveness to one another as disciples and believers in Jesus our Lord and savior. May the Holy Spirit lead you to enter into this Holy Week and come out of this Lent as renewed and redeemed by Jesus to love one another as He has loved us.

May Our Lady of Good Counsel intercede for us.
